

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

EIGHTY-EIGHTH SESSION

FIRST DAY

STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA
Senate Chamber, Pierre
Tuesday, January 8, 2013

BE IT REMEMBERED, That on the eighth day of January, A.D., two thousand thirteen, at the hour of twelve o'clock meridian, being the date and hour fixed by the Constitution of the State of South Dakota, for the convening of the Legislature, the Eighty-eighth regular session of the Senate of the State of South Dakota was called to order by Lieutenant Governor Matt Michels in the Senate Chamber in the Capitol, in the City of Pierre, the seat of our government.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Susan Carr, Pierre/Ft. Pierre Ministerial Association:

Holy One, whom we know by many names, we thank you for the opportunities of this new day and this new legislature. Let your grace surprise us as we argue and discern, struggle against and work together to shape legislation that allows for Your will to be done on earth as it is already in heaven. You have planted within us certain longings and certain inalienable rights, but you have also called us to responsibility and putting others before ourselves. You have called us to listen to your guidance and to work with you to plant seeds that will bring life and hope and justice and peace, signs of Shalom.

We pray for each one here who has answered a call to serve and we pray that they will be humbled by this opportunity to serve as public servants. May their hands and hearts and minds recognize this amazing opportunity to consider and discern the good of our communities, our state and our nation. We pray for all the needs of those who will come before this body looking for governance and justice; we pray for those who serve in the House and in the Senate, our Governor, our Supreme Court and all those who serve in state offices across South Dakota. Keep them mindful of the least among us, for we are charged as people of faith to remember the vulnerable and the lowly and the poor. Teach us compassion as we rule and lead. And we pray O God, that each person in our state may also remember that government is of the people, by the people and that each of us may become informed and active citizens, working alongside these whom we have elected to govern to build communities and homes, schools, churches and places of work where You are honored and Your Light and Love are reflected in our lives. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag of the United States was led by Senate page Tracy Hague.
